RETURN OF SCÓR ON THE HORIZON.

With so much GAA activity being affected by Covid-19, you could be forgiven that there is the not insignificant matter of Scór Sinsear Craobh Uladh 2020 to be finished. With case numbers rising and gathering indoors being discouraged the decision was taken to pause the running of the 2020 Scór Sinsear Ulster final in March 2020. Little did we think that it would be twenty months later that the completion of this competition would be coming around.

Fear Manach will be represented in this competition with the Grúpa Ceoil from Derrylin O'Connell's. This group consisting of Sinéad Lunney, Shauneen Maguire, Sarah Prunty and Ryan Maguire will take to the stage on Saturday 30th October 2021 at a time and venue yet to be decided. The group were successful in the Babhta Ceannais Scór Sinsear Fhear Manach on Saturday 29th February 2020 in Coa Hall and went on to claim a place in the final after placing in the qualification slots the following Saturday in St Nissi's Hall Randalstown amid tough competition.

This is a great development in the promotion and participation of Scór in Fear Manach and with the participants all having just made the step up from Scór na n-Óg in recent years it shows the depth of talent in the Derrylin club and throughout Fear Manach in general.

Fear Manach can boast of a haul of Fleadh medals in a range of different disciplines, added to that a wealth of dramatical and traditional Irish dancing you can see why Fear Manach needs to get itself on the map again when it comes to Scór competitions.

The purpose of Scór is to provide entertainment for GAA loving people throughout the winter. What more entertainment can anyone ask for that Irish music, song and dance combined with the nuachléas and aithriseoireacht? Many will have picked up instruments or practised party pieces while waiting for the opportunity to get on to the big stage. Hopefully we will all get our chance in the coming months.

The GAA have confirmed that Scór na n-Óg will kick off Scór activity for the 2022 season therefore it's not long until we should be basking in the talent of our young Fear Manach Gaels. And what of the Derrylin Grúpa Ceoil taking to the stage on 30th October, well let's hope that there is more silverware to come to the south Fermanagh club for 2020.
