Fáiltiú ón Chathaoirleach

A chairde Gaeil, tá fáilte romhaibh go léir go Páirc Páirc Páirc Bhruisceoir anocht don chluiche idir Fear Manach agus Cill Dara. Guím rath agus sonas ar imreoirí, an lucht bainistíochta agus lucht tacaíochta Fhear Manach agus tá súil agam go mbeidh aistear fada romhainn in 2024.

As Chairperson of Fermanagh GAA to be able to welcome you all to Brewster Park, Enniskillen for our first home game in the Allianz Football league. I extend a warm Fermanagh welcome to the Kildare team, Officials and supporters. I thank all our volunteers assisting in today's games, the many stewards, officials assisting in this evenings game

We greatly appreciate the support and generosity of our many sponsors, in particular main sponsor Tracey Concrete, Patsy as the longest service county team sponsor is an instrumental part of supporting Fermanagh GAA to reach our goals. We are grateful to have such loyal supporter in Patsy and his family. We also thank our other sponsors McMahon Healthcare, Modern Tyres and Monaghan Brothers, we thank you for your continued support. I want to thank Club Éirne for all their fundraising to help all our teams succeed, I would ask you support Club Éirne and consider becoming a member.

I am delighted that we will be able to acknowledge the success of St. Aidans H.S., Derrylin on winning the Ulster GAA's McCormack Cup, this was a great achievement for the school and feeder clubs. I congratulate all the players, coaches, teachers, parents and principal Pat McTaggart on this achievement.

Finally, I wish all of our county teams the very best for 2024, enjoy this evenings game and I hope to see lots of you at the many games and get behind all out teams.

Fermanagh v Kildare Match Preview

By Gareth Cauldwell Impartial Reporter

Fermanagh will hope to build on an opening day draw against Meath when they host Kildare this evening at Brewster Park.

Kieran Donnelly's side have been tipped by many as favourites for a drop straight back down to Division Three following last season's promotion, but they will feel that if they can play as they did for long periods in Navan then it will give them every chance of holding their own in Division Two.

The Meath game was one that could have gone either way, Fermanagh left chances behind that could have saw them further ahead at the break but Meath had an opportunity to win it at the end that they failed to convert as it finished all square.

All in all, a point in Navan is a positive start for Fermanagh but there are plenty of big tests to come in the weeks ahead, starting tonight.

Fermanagh will be very aware that Kildare will travel to Enniskillen with a point to prove after their four-point loss to Cavan last weekend.

It is fair to say that the Breffnimen were excellent value for the win and the Lilywhites will know that if they suffer a second successive defeat it will have them looking over their shoulder already in the league.

A big and physical Kildare though are better than they showed last Saturday, and they have plenty of quality throughout the pitch.

Ben McCormack and Darragh Kirwan will be key men in attack while Daniel Flynn, Niall Kelly and Neil Flynn missed last week's game and would only add to their attacking threat if available.

It means that the Cullens, Shane McGullion et al will have to be at their best in defence for Fermanagh.

Midfield will be a crucial area as always. Kildare have a formidable pairing in Kevin Feely and Kevin O'Callaghan but Brandon Horan and Joe McDade renewed their Hogan Cup winning partnership with St. Michael's and they will be aiming to build on the promising signs they displayed.

Key for Fermanagh will be taking their chances when they are presented. Against Meath, Fermanagh worked the ball well into scoring positions but did not always capitalise on them – it is something Kieran Donnelly's side will be striving to improve.

Sean Cassidy was a bright spark up front for the Ernemen last week, the Ederney man hitting 1-02, while Fermanagh will also look to Garvan Jones and Ultan Kelm for scores from an attacking sense although they also like to get players coming from deep to add scores too.

Kildare will rely on the likes of Mick O'Grady and Shea Ryan to keep tabs on the Erne forwards.

The last time the sides met was in 2019 in Brewster Park and saw Fermanagh shade a low scoring contest, 0-8 to 0-6. This has the makings of another tight affair and while it is only early in the league, there is plenty riding on it for both teams.

Ulster Champions St. Aidan's High School, Derrylin

At last! That was the feeling among pupils, staff and the entire St. Aidan's, Derrylin community when the under 16.5 boys won a first boys' Ulster title for the school.

It took 51 years of trying but on 12 January the wait was over.

After emerging from their group, the Derrylin schoolboys dispatched of Scoil Mhuire, Buncrana by 5-8 to 3-6 in the quarter-final.

Two Dan O'Connor goals and one from Ronan Fitzpatrick proved to be the catalyst for their victory, setting up a semi-final meeting with near neighbours and holders St. Kevin's, Lisnaskea.

In a much-anticipated semi-final at Louis Leonard Park in Donagh, St. Aidan's staged a spirited comeback, coming from two points down with seven minutes to play.

Tomás Cathcart and O'Connor were the men up front to convert the vital winning scores but it took a huge team effort to dethrone the reigning champions.

With a first ever Ulster decider on the cards, final fever swept through Derrylin and the neighbouring villages of Kinawley, Teemore and Belnaleck.

Only Coláiste Feirste from the Falls Road, Belfast, stood in St. Aidan's way now.

On a perfect day for football in Augher, the Derrylin school and its supporters turned Fr. Hackett Park black and yellow.

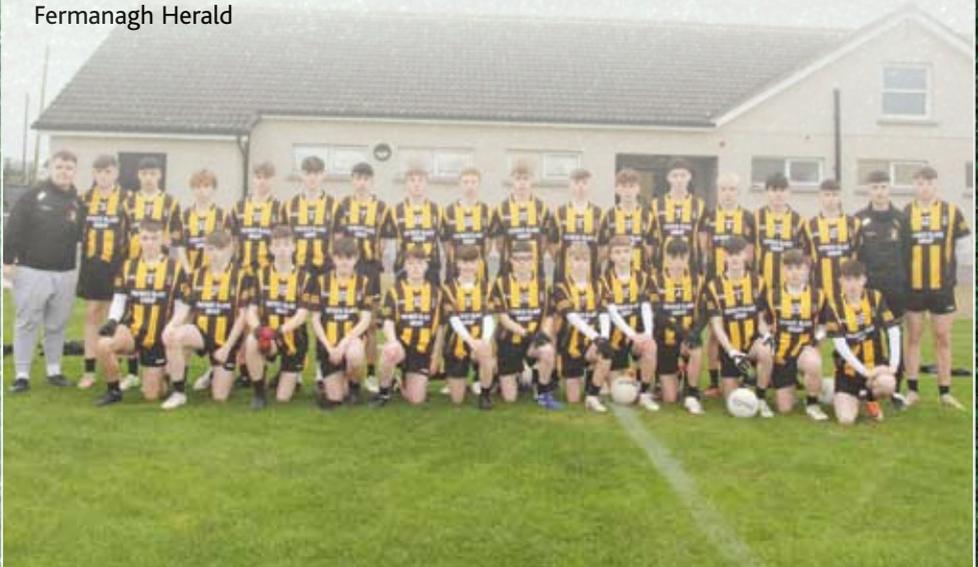

After racing into a 0-6 to no score lead at the break, the Belfast boys came storming back but the St. Aidan's defence, led by Conal Crudden, Devin Quinn and Ronan Brennan stood strong and the Derrylin boys were crowned Ulster Champions on a scoreline of 0-9 to 0-6.

Former St. Aidan's vice principal and PE teacher, Tony McCaffrey, who is also the Ulster Vocational Schools' secretary, had the great honour of presenting the trophy to joint captains Ciaran Shannon and Dan O'Connor.

Principal, Pat McTeggart attributed the victory to all the past players 'who have worn the St. Aidan's jersey with distinction' on a day that filled everyone with an immense sense of pride.

CLUB OFFICER SURVEY

ARE YOU A CLUB OFFICER?
WHY DO YOU DO IT?
IS IT WHAT YOU EXPECTED IT TO BE?
HOW CAN WE MAKE IT BETTER?

The GAA, LGFA and Camogie Associations are, in conjunction with SETU Waterford, asking all current Club Officers - or anyone who has been an Officer in the last five years - to help us improve the volunteer experience, no matter the role, across the Gaelic Games Associations.

From January 24th, and running for several weeks, our Club Officer survey aims to identify the type of people volunteering to be involved with their Clubs; why they do it; and, most importantly, what we can do to make the experience as enjoyable, impactful, and rewarding as possible.

YOUNG FERMANAGH SIDE SHOWING SIGNS OF REAL POTENTIAL in 2024

By Pauric McGurn

Fermanagh hurlers prepare for the start of the new season as they head to face Leitrim next Saturday February 10th. The Ernesiders find themselves this year back in the basement of the NHL after last year's relegation from Division 3A.

Joe Baldwin's charges have been quite lucky this year with just the one away league game and three at Brewster Park. There is no doubting the Erne men were unlucky last year, the league table may have had them bottom with P5 - W1 - D1 - L3 - however, a 2 point defeat to Monaghan, while one point defeats to Louth and Armagh just emphasised how close Fermanagh came.

This season they start with Connacht side Leitrim in Carrick-on-Shannon before home games with Warwickshire, Lancashire and Longford. Further down the line Fermanagh will face into the Lory Meagher Cup on April 13 and games to come are - Leitrim (A), Cavan (H), Warwickshire (A), Lancashire (H), and Longford (A) before the top two sides face off in a Final on Saturday June 1st.

Fermanagh have impressed this season with an encouraging showing in their opening game of the Conor McGurk Cup when they easily defeated Cavan, 0-13 to 4-18 at Kingspan Breffni Park. While a Quarter Final victory over Queens University, 1-18 to 0-29, once again showed the high scoring quality of the Erne attackers. Donegal would eventually defeat Fermanagh at the Semi Final stage in Brewster Park, 1-12 to 2-16, however Joe Baldwin would have been greatly encouraged from what he has seen in the Pre-season competition as he gets ready to face Leitrim next Saturday.
