Fáiltiú ón Chathaoirleach

A chairde Gaeil, tá fáilte romhaibh go léir go Páirc Naomh Iosaf, Eadarnaidh anocht don chluiche idir Fear Manach agus Corcaigh. Guím rath agus sonas ar imreoirí, an lucht bainistíochta agus lucht tacaíochta Fhear Manach agus tá súil agam go mbeidh aistear fada romhainn in 2024.

As Chairperson of Fermanagh GAA to be able to welcome you all to St. Joseph's Park, Ederney for the round 4 game in the Allianz Football league. I extend a warm Fermanagh welcome to the Cork team, Officials and supporters who have made the long journey here today. Thank all our volunteers assisting in today's games, the many stewards, officials and all in the Ederney club, thank you for making their facilities available for today's game.

I want to congratulate our two county players Josh Largo Elis and Ronan McCaffrey on winning the Sigerson Cup with Ulster University and all at South West Collage on winning the Corn na Mac Lenin Shield.

We greatly appreciate the support and generosity of our many sponsors, in particular main sponsor Tracey Concrete, Patsy as the longest service county team sponsor is an instrumental part of supporting Fermanagh GAA to reach our goals. We are grateful to have such loyal supporter in Patsy and his family for 35 years. We also thank our other sponsors McMahon Healthcare, Modern Tyres and Monaghan Brothers, we thank you for your continued support. I want to thank Club Éirne for all their fundraising to help all our teams succeed, I would ask you support Club Éirne and consider becoming a member.

Finally, I wish all of our county teams the very best for 2024, enjoy this evenings game and I hope to see lots of you at the many games and get behind all out teams.

Tense encounter awaits in Ederney for Fermanagh and Cork

By Pauric McGurn

A crunch encounter awaits Fermanagh and Cork as they clash in Ederney as the National Football League Division 2 gets over the halfway stage.

Cork have been the talk of Division 2 this season but it's been for all the wrong reasons, a heavy first round defeat by Donegal was probably expected, but the defeats to Louth and Cavan have certainly surprised many.

With the Rebels now coming in to the clash with Fermanagh without a single point it will be imperative for John Cleary's side to leave with something or else face the dreaded drop to Division 3 football in 2025 and more than likely the Tailteann Cup (Cork or Limerick face Kerry in the Munster SFC Semi Final on Saturday April 20th.)

Cork will look to the likes of Sean Meehan, Luke Fahy and Maurice Shanley in defence, while midfield duo Colm O'Callaghan and Ian Maguire have played in all three games to date at 8 and 9.

Team captain Brian Hurley will start at full forward and will need watching, while 26 year old Chris Og Jones has impressed immensely for Cleary's side.

Fermanagh have completed the draw, win and a defeat in the opening three games, with the draw against Meath seeing the Royals score the last three points of the game to snatch a draw.

Fermanagh led throughout against Kildare in round 2 and goals from Ederney duo Sean Cassidy and Declan McCusker were enough for Fermanagh to secure the victory.

Round 3 saw Fermanagh put up a brave battle against Donegal for the opening 40 minutes until the home side in Letterkenny finished with real purpose to win out by 2-16 to 0-8.

Sundays clash should see a close encounter with both sides really needing something, it will be tense and the Ederney venue may just swing it in Fermanagh's favour.
